SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The senior class of '42 opened their senior year by electing from their twenty-five members, the following officers: president, John Upham; vice-president, June Calkins; secretary, Betty Lauri and treasurer, Barry MacDougall. The Class advisors are Mr. McFarland and Mrs. Osborne.

During the year we had many activities; among them, a magazine campaign, sponsored by the senior class which netted $57. We also sold Christmas cards during November, making a profit of $31. In addition to these candy and jello were sold. "Life Begins at Sixteen", a three-act comedy, was presented on December 16 with a profit of $50. The first dance in the new gymnasium was held on October 16.

As a gift to the new school, the class presented a flag on February 24th, to be used in the school auditorium.

Commencement week begun June 19 with the senior ball. The Baccalaureate address was given by Rev. George Upham at the Barlett Church on June 21st. Blue caps and gowns were worn at the graduation exercises, Monday June 22nd.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Do you believe in time-machines? We, the Senior class of 1942, never did until the following events were predicted to come true in 1952. Each one of us has a different future.

Antoinette Bartell has just been assigned the responsibility of three small children. We have reason to believe they are residing at the Filtmore Hotel in New York City.

Patricia Barns has recently opened her new office in Philadelphia. She has designed some very trim dresses. Everyone is applauding them, so come on, Patricia, give us some more.

Raymond Bazan is working on a very good experiment. He is trying perfect an example of perpetual movement. (Don't you think it can be done?)

Margaret Beckwith, an airline stewardess has recently shown a bit of heroism. While in the air she prevented a small child from leaning out of a window. (We always thought she'd be a heroine someday.)

June Calkins will be assuming a different name soon. She will settle down happily with her everloving husband. Too bad she didn't study home economics in her school years.

Arthur Castle has been called to Hollywood to play another big part opposite Linda Darnell. The movie critics say it will be as successful as the rest of his pictures!!!

John Coyne, a much publicized athletic coach, has accepted a position offered him by Yale University. The public expects many good games from your boys, so come on, John.

Gloria Haggas has opened a studio for dancing. She will give anyone a lesson from 2 to 9 p.m. Come on, boys, no need for saying you can't dance.

Lorraine Harrington is now working in her own home. She is a Mrs. One guess who the Mr. is. (One guess-Lyle Smith.)

Patricia Hessler, supervisor of Bellevue Hospital, New York City has published an article on methods of the prevention of the common cold. We wonder what they are.

Julia Kapshe is employed by Biggers, Biggers and Company. She is a private secretary and is rapidly becoming a successful socialite.

Betty Lauri has been made judge of the Circuit Court in Arizona. She likes it and also the country. Good going, Betty. Congratulations.

Barry MacDougall is now the featured vocalist in Glenn Miller's Orchestra.

Emogene Moose is the president of a personnel department in one of Penney's stores in Chicago. We always thought she had a business head.

Virginio Moose is a dietitian in a local hospital. If she keeps up her good work she'll probably get a raise or a promotion.

Bertha Podosek is employed by the Rome Sentinel paper. Her special assignment is boxing. Why? Is it because of a pair of initials A. P.!!!!

Bertha Robson is an outstanding soloist in the Metropolitan Opera. She knocks them all out. (the doors)

Walter Senior is captain of the troopers in the Utica barracks. He likes his job, he says, because its lots of fun and you meet a lot of interesting people.

Carl Smith is living in the West and has a very profitable farm. He has several employees and will soon be running for sheriff.

Florence Smith has accepted a position in a school near Buffalo. She teaches sixth grade.

Lyle Smith is the ace homehitter of the New York Giants. Good for you, Lyle.

John Upham has been appointed chief undertaker by the local medical board. That's the least he can do for some of us.

Edward Wilczak has made much advancement in his salesmanship. Next we expect to see him promoted. He got his start selling Christmas cards for his Senior class.

Dorothy Wolfe is a physical education teacher. As a sideline she gives airplane flying instructions.

John Zakris is commander-in-chief of the Navy. Good going! John, we always thought you would make it.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Antoinette Bartell leaves her pocketbook to the cheerleaders to carry their suits in .

Raymond Bazan leaves his bass voice to Peter Juravich.

Arthur Castle leaves his wooing technique to Robert Wilson.

June Calkins leaves her sense of humor to Bernice Marsh.

John Upham leaves about 25 pounds to Karl Knudsen.

Carl Smith leaves his ability to read "Macbeth" to all the Junior boys.

Edward Wilczak leaves his low tone of voice to Andy Smith.

Barry MacDougall leaves his manners to Alfred Zakris.

Lyle Smith leaves his batting average to Jack Rehm.

Gloria Haggas leaves her ability to blush to Natalie Mowers.

Lorraine Harrington leaves her bashful line to Lucille Sawner and Irene Evans.

Bertha Podosek and Julia Kapsho leave Mr. Craine's office to some other lucky girls.

Bertha Robson leaves her giggles to Gwendolyn Banas.

Emogene Moose leaves her good disposition to the Majorettes.

John Coyne leaves his slinky walk to Huey Evans.

Walter Senior leaves his strong, silent technique to Harland Balch.

Dorothy Wolfe leaves her loud chatter to Vera Whittemore.

Florence Smith leaves Slicker's soccerball to Pauline Dixon.

Margaret Beckwith leaves her temper to "Toots".

John Zakris leaves his car to Kenny Spaven.

Patricia Barns leaves her ability to string a line to Rose Marocchi.

Patricia Hessler leaves Alfred Kaelin alone (get it?)

Betty Lauri leaves some of her vim and vigor to Rita Stockbridge.

Virginia Moose leaves her technique to Edith Schlist.

ALMA MATER

Tune:

The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi

The school we love best is Westmoreland
Of all the schools we know,
For victory we will fight for thee
Our colors we will show;
When the game is done, whether lost or won,
We'll pledge our loyalty
And sing once again our praises to thee,
On, on for the green and white.

Our girls are the sweetest to be found,
Our boys are fleetest too,
On field or floor they will make a score
And keep our fair banner aloft;
But if unto defeat we fall,
We still will loyal be,
For to play the game fair, and to be on the square
Are the ideals of our high school.

Motto: They can who think they can.

Flower: Delphinium

Color: Blue and Silver

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Under the leadership of the following officers: president, Antoinette Brown; vice-president, Rita Stockbridge; secretary, Pauline Dixon; treasurer, Lucille Sanner; and adviser, Mrs. Bishop, the Junior Class had a very busy year. To start, they had a bake sale at the Victory Store. This brought in the first $7.00 earned by the class. Then they held a dance in the school auditorium on January 22, 1942, bringing $22.32 more. After the dance, they did not relax, but started right in learning the play, "Grandma Goes Hollywood" under the direction of Mrs. Bishop and Mr. Osborne. All the money was used to help pay for class rings.

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Sophomore Class has 39 members. Some of the class is in Mrs. Bishepp's home room while some are in Mr. McFarland's.

The class has as officers: president, Esther Brown; vice-president, Edward Podosek; secretary, Carlton Balch; and treasurer, Charles Keshler. Miss Hogan is class advisor.

The only activity of the year was a hot-dog roast in October held at the home of Forrest Robson.

Many members of the class are active in band, choir and athletics.

MUSIC

The choir consisting of fifty members and directed by Miss Fry is in four part harmony. It takes part in the Spring Concert, the Baccalaureate and Graduation exercises.

There are two special groups within the choir: they are the Senior Trio, composed of Virginia Moose, Patricia Hessler and Emogene Moose; and the Junior Trio, composed of Ruth Wilson, Jeanne Hessler and Helen Fedor.

An instrumental ensemble was formed to play at the prize speaking contest. In this there are 10 members, including Miss Fry, pianist, Arthur Barns, Lucille Blake, Esther Brown, Marjorie Foppes, Robert Howlett, Harriet Millen, Bruce Lenahan, Harold Storey and Lois Wood.

The band under the training and direction of the Schuler brothers, presented a spring concert and marched on Memorial Day. At the basketball games it was led by three assistant directors, Esther Brown, Patricia Hessler and Dorothy Wolfe. It also plays at various school functions.

The majorettes performed brilliantly at the home basketball games, with band accompaniment. Many original formations were presented by Pauline Dixon, leader, and Gwendolyn Banas, Mary Coyne, Irene Evans, Marion Flamig, Lena Lamonto, Mary Lamonto, Bernice Marsh and Natalie Mowers.

All the musical organizations participated in the Spring Music Festival at Sherrill.

SECRETARIAL CLUB

ECHO

"THE ECHO"

Westmoreland High School's one venture into the field of journalism is the monthly publication of the "Echo". The staff also publishes a yearbook at the close of the school year.

The other members of the staff are as follows: Patricia Barns, Antoinette Bartell, Margaret Beckwith, Kenneth Brower, Pauline Dixon, Irene Evans, Patricia Hessler, Jenny Kicinski, Lorna Kunz, Lena Lamonto, Rose Marocchi, Robert Marriott, Bernice Marsh, Harriett Millen, Emogene Moose, Barbara Newman, Bertha Podosek, Lucille Sawner, Edith Schlist, Betty Smith, Rita Stockbridge, Arnold Traver, John Upham, George Wetherell and Walter Yates.

SECRETARIAL CLUB

Last year the Secretarial Club was formed by Mrs. Bishopp, to give the upper-class commercial students experience in secretarial work. At the end of the year, the members are awarded letters. This year there are ten members. They are: Antoinette Bartell, Pauline Dixon, Irene Evans, Julia Kapsho, Betty Lauri, Bernice Marsh, Barbara Newman, Bertha Podosek, Edith Schlist, Theresa Stockbridge and Edward Wilczak.

LIBRARY CADETS

PRIZE SPEAKING

THE LIBRARY CADETS

The library cadets are not only a great help to the librarian, Miss Bell, but also to the school.

They mend books, reinforce magazines, catalogue and waterproof new books and give information needed to students. They also help take care of the grade school library.

There are five library cadets: Antoinette Dzwonkas, Alma Cook, Emogene Moose, Esther Brown and Margaret Beckwith. There are two punior cadets of the sixth grade who assist in the grade library. They are Frances Lazicki, and Jean Sperback.

PRIZE SPEAKING

Prize Speaking semi-finals were won by the following people: Patricia Hessler, Lorna Kunz, Barry MacDougall, Virginia Moose, John Upham, Robert Wilson, Dorothy Wolfe and John Zakris.

These people compete against each other to determine the best boy and girl to represent Westmoreland at the Madison-Oneida League contest.

FFA

4-H

4-H CLUBS

The homemaking club of the 4-H called "The Hornets," participated in many activities this last year.

Toward the last of July a fashion show was held at 4-H headquarters in New Hartford. Six members modeled their clothes made during the year. These same members exhibited their clothes at Boonville, Syracuse and Vernon Fairs.

In September Mrs. Roger Reniff was admitted to the club as assistant leader. The club completed their cooking unit in January and are now working on sewing

The officers are as follows:

President—Carol Calkins

Vice-president—Geraldine States

Secretary—Mary Coyne

Treasurer—Ann Evans

Leader—Alma Cook

The boys 4-H Club, "The Westmorelanders," was very active at the fairs this last summer. Forrest Robson won third prize on calf; Andrew Smith won two first prizes on vegetables.

All the boys are planning to make victory gardens and hope to win one of the several prizes offered.

F. F. A.

The officers of the Future Farmers of America are as follows: President, Carl Smith; vice-president, Walter Senior; secretary, Harland Balch; treasurer, Lyle Smith; reporter, Forrest Robson and advisor, Mr. Reniff.

The eighteen members have judged crops and livestock at Vernon, Boonville, Syracuse and Cornell. They have also attended lectures at Vernon, Clinton, and New Hartford. At present they are selling seeds, the proceeds to be used for next year's Cornell trip.

HOMEMAKING

"MODERN HOME MAKERS"

The girls of the Home Economics Elective Class, and Home Making A and D have recently organized a club called "The Modern Homemakers" under the supervision of Mrs. Osborne. Their meetings are held every other Tuesday in the school cafeteria. At the meetings they have discussions, play games, and after the meeting refreshments are served.

The following officers were chosen: president, Rita Stockbridge; vice-president, Mary Lamonto; secretary, Lena Lamonto; treasurer, Shirley Schram.

The girls have been very active. They have made mittens and knitted sweaters for the boys in the service, and also contributed things to the Red Cross. At one meeting committees were chosen to contribute boxes for needy families.

SCOUTS

The present enrollment of the Girl Scouts is 25. The troop is divided into two groups composed of the Junior group who are the new members, and the Senior group who are old members. Miss Fry is the scout leader assisted by Mrs. Reniff.

In the beginning of the year, the Junior group were working to pass their Second class tests; while the Senior group were working on a play which they hope to present soon. In the latter part of the year both groups planned and made ready for a bazaar which will be held sometime during the month of April.

The Westmoreland Boy Scout troop started in 1937 under the direction of James T. McFarland, Sr. Later the leadership was given to Mr. Edwin Warner who is now the present leader.

In the summer, the club goes camping and hiking. During the year the boys collected aluminum and paper for defense.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, a newly established organization in our school, is composed of the following members under the supervision of Mr. Craine: president, Gloria Haggas; secretary, Lorna Kunz; treasurer, Lois Wood; Bertha Robson, Kenneth Spaven, William Norris, Herbert Wilczak, Lois Howlett, Jean Hessler, Harold Storey, and Wanda Losowski. These members were voted for by the student body. Two people were chosen from each of the Junior and Senior high school grades.

The Council has adopted a constitution and has jurisdiction over all school activities.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

At the first meeting of the Athletic Council the following officers were elected: president, Karl Knudsen; vice-president, Mary Coyne, and secretary-treasurer, Lena Lamonto.

The members of this council were chosen by the Physical Education classes. The girls chosen were: Betty Lauri, Virginia Moose, Antoinette Dzwonkas, Lena Lamonto, Beverly Harrison, Mary Coyne, Pauline Shepard and Gertrude Warlick.

The boys chosen were: Walter Senior, Edward Wilczak, Robert Wilson, Karl Knudsen, Jack Castle, Robert Howlett, Harold Storey and Lloyd Dixon.

The faculty advisors were Mr. Keyes and Mr. Craine.

The council helped to plan the Intramurals and was responsible for the completion of them.
